

THE 1700 IMPRESSIONS

Impressions: Ipswich Side

Leaves, trembling in advance, had come
In a square of new air.

In death my first secret passion was the life of England's framed oaks.

Stooping to trace the inverse veins,
I remember a pair of hands into the concrete cylinder of a dry-grown Well, so hard
I smelted them cold and the bones were grey, were pale Even then, I understood that the world promised life and change as well as woe
If I pressed against all
If I fell.
If I flew

Dear Members of the Class of 2006:

Your yearbook represents a pictorial summary of your time at Ipswich High School. You are fortunate to have attended Ipswich High School at a wonderful time. During your four years, the school has received a Compass Award from the Massachusetts Department of Education, a Vanguard Award from the Mass Insight Education and Research Institute and designation as a National Blue Ribbon School. Your great class has been truly instrumental in the school receiving these recognitions. You leave behind a very positive history. Your class is well liked and respected with each of you individually contributing markedly to your school. You have been recognized for excellence in athletics, drama, art, music, writing, speaking and in a variety of other forums.

Your yearbook is your link to the past as you move through life. On behalf of the faculty and staff, we wish you good fortune in all you do. Best of luck to each of you.

Academic Department Heads

"The Class of 2006 is very inquisitive, curious and strives to understand whatever issues come before it."

Mr. Ames (History)

"The Class of 2006 has been the third most mathematically skillful class in my 21 years of teaching."

Mrs. Webber (Math)

"As students and as people of the members of the Class of 2006 have been a pleasure to know and work with."

Mrs. Benedetto (English)

"As you stood in pride on that snowy January morning when we celebrated our Blue Ribbon, may you continue to stand out and to make us proud."

Dr. Ladd
(Foreign Language)

"As this school year ends, you are starting a new journey, I'm ending one-28 years of teaching in Ipswich. Beginnings and endings are what life is all about. They may be good, sad, bad, happy, exciting, or any mix, but they are what life is made of."

Some of you I've had in class once or twice and some I've known out of class. Helping each of you grow has helped me grow as well. What we give to others comes back increased. It would be difficult to pick a better class to end my time at IHS with." Mrs. Festa (Science)

A Message from Mr. Dalton:

"Figure out where you want to go, what you want to do and then follow it with a passion. Ask yourself everyday, "What will I do today that is going to help me get to where I want to go?" and then do something to help yourself. The result that will follow is a meaningful, happy and productive life!"

Clubs & Activities

Six seniors will travel to Washington D.C.
in March for the 2006 Close Up experience.
This trip is not only an informative experience on the mechanism of the government but it is also a wonderful opportunity to see our nation's capital."

~Mrs. M. Smith

"The Art Club is a creative and ingenuous group of characters.
Ms. Thompson led a successful stone carving workshop in the fall and the club is looking forward to our annual trip to New York City this coming spring."

~Ms. Losee

"The Chameleon production staff for 2005-2006 has done a wonderful job with the January 2006 issue. Their careful production work will enable many talented I.H.S.
student writers, photographers, and artists to share their work in our literary magazine."

~Mrs. Benedetto

"The 2005-2006 Amnesty International group continued to lend their support to people both at home and abroad. Whether they were working at a local food shelter or raising money to buy chicks (for families in third world nations) these students used their creativity to make the world a better place for all people. Their compassionate and tolerant spirits are commendable."

~Mrs. E. Smith

"After a very successful Bone Marrow Drive in May 2005, the Student Senate began the 2005-2006 school year eager to continue doing good for the school and community. Led by a core of veteran members and officers, the Student Senate continues to improve the school and help those who need it."

~Mr. Holman

"The 2005-2006 Tiger Transcript staff will be remembered as one of the most productive staffs in I.H.S. history, producing nearly 150 articles in just the first semester! The staff's desire to be an honest, insightful voice for their school community has been quite impressive."

~Mrs. E. Smith"

"Ipswich High School's Diversity Club is committed to promote tolerance in our community, affirming that an environment of safety and acceptance is a foundation for all learning and growth. We believe that all have a right to feel safe, regardless of differences. Diversity Club exists to foster self-esteem, self-discipline, and respect for others while having fun."

Mrs. Addonizio

"The 2006 yearbook will certainly make an impression. The yearbook class will be remembered for their creative energy, and their artistic interpretation. They laughed, I cried but in the end we created a book that captured indelible memories. Best of luck to each of you and always remember the laptop you were using (IT WAS #4!). Thank You."

~Mrs. Welch

"Science Team was started up again this year after being absent for a brief time from Ipswich High School. A core group of regulars, along with rotating participants, have competed each month and maintained a steady "middle of the pack" standing. We are proud of the students who have returned Ipswich to the League and shown enthusiasm in competing every month."

~Mrs. Hamm

"Dating violence breeds on silence. Teens Against Dating Abuse (TADA) seeks to promote a school culture where abuse is not tolerated by raising awareness about what constitutes abuse and making it OK to talk about it."

~Mr. Holtz

"Math League enjoys Wednesday afternoons and the first Thursday of each month working on challenging problems in an atmosphere of comradery, sharing and growing mathematically. Each week presents opportunities for social and academic interactions. The competitions are non-threatening yet fulfilling for each team member."

~Mrs. Webber

"The students who participate in the Mock Trial Project come from all parts of the student body at I.H.S. They range from the athletes to the musicians, the cool cats to the book worms. But each is intrigued by the puzzle presented by the problem. They are a hard working and fun loving lot, and it is a pleasure to be with them."

~Mr. Murphy

"The N.H.S. students are always quick to volunteer for any task placed before them. They are immensely talented and excellent at devising solutions."

~Mr. Ames

"The Ipswich High School Model UN Club is a collaboration of students from all grades who seek knowledge of the global community through dynamic competition, intellectual discussion and civic improvement projects. In the club's first full school year, 2005-2006, students competed and did well in the Boston University/M.I.T. Model U.N."

"I am very proud to be the first chosen to display my artwork in the IHS Permanent Collection. Grow was my second large painting created at IHS and it was completed in November of 2004."

~ Brianna Farina

In an effort to honor students for their creativity and dedication, the Visual Arts Department, beginning in 2005, decided to purchase a piece of artwork from a graduating senior. Each year, one exceptional piece will be purchased by the school and put on display throughout the building as a way of honoring and remembering the achievements of the talented students who pass through the Visual Arts Program. Initial funding was provided by local citizen and school committee member Edmund Traverso in honor of his wife, Georgina Jill Traverso, who are both patrons of the arts. In time the collection will serve as a record of the many students who contributed to the arts at Ipswich High School.

Freshman President Address

Freshman '05-'06, alright! Be proud, this class has come such a long way! We learned the ways of high school quickly! The transition was quite a challenge, but we proved ourselves to be interesting, fun, and of course, unique. We can thank the upperclassmen for accepting us, disregarding past reputations, and helping us start our lives as highschoolers. We will be sure to follow their example as the new freshmen.

There are many things we can praise ourselves for, one of them being our liveliness and creativity. Many trends come and go throughout high school whether with behavior, clothes, hair, activities or projects. People came around to trying new things and not being afraid of what others may think. By December there were a few girls in particular who found a funky hairstyle they liked, and didn't seem to mind that it would make them stand out. Many appreciated that individuality! Hopefully, it made others feel as though they do not have to conform to the way others are.

Spirit Week was one of those times for our peers to show off what they had, and many did just that. Maybe the other classes were even beginning to feel a little intimidated, especially when it came around to the football throw. Of course, everybody knows we owned the bubble gum relay as well. But if there was one thing that made all the upperclassmen tremble, it was our break dancing man Shawn Cure and amazing guitar soloist Jake Pardee. They made the crowd go wild. Just wait for the Class of '09 next year! (After an entire summer of intense spirit week training.)

With Ipswich's Blue Ribbon awarded this year, it's definite that there are a range of clubs and programs for everybody to join. Teachers and participants are to thank for all of that. So for all students, artists, musicians, or club members involved, you've done an excellent job. Keep it up!

Once again, it's been an unforgettable year!

Goodbye, and good luck Seniors!

So, we survived freshman and sophomore year! Now we can conquer the world, right?

Well, maybe not just yet, but we've accomplished some pretty great stuff. We came in second place in Spirit Week and made a ton of money selling those pies! It was great to see our class pull together so well. So many sophomores represented our school in sports, music and art. Our class really has a lot of talent! When we started in September, we had just finished our first year of high school. Now we are halfway through! The past two years have gone by so fast, and everyone will remember them. It was great to see all of you show so much dedication to our class through participation in fun things like Spirit Week (did you know 40 people showed up to decorate our wall?!) and through fundraisers like the pie drive (we made over $1,000!) Our class is definitely unique, and hopefully, will remain as close as we are now for the next two years. We share some really awesome memories, and have two more years to make some more! Our job as your officers was to help get our class positively involved with our school. We hope you think we did our job!

Juniors

If I remember one thing about my junior year, it will be one memory from this year's spirit week. While in some ways, it would be a week I'd like to forget, in other ways it was the week that opened my eyes to what our class really is, a family. As most remember, the opening interactive event for spirit week this year was watching our school's cheerleaders perform. I stood up, and turned around as to persuade my class to follow me. Not expecting anything more than two people, my eyes opened with surprise as the whole class rose from their seats and began clapping. As I looked around the gym, it was only our little corner that rose above the rest, and the cheering that sounded from us was not lazy or forced, but excited and genuine. If I remember one thing about the Class of 2007 it will be that they are excited for life, and will always be there for each other. With only one year left, we must make it worth it, because life only gives you a class like ours once, and it's time now to take advantage of that.

President Address

The most important thing for all of us to remember about our last year is, in the words of Dave Matthews, life is short, but sweet for certain.

We've only had four years together, but there are infinite memories and relationships that will stay with us forever. We have been strong through it all, and I am sure that the friendships made here will be lifelong. Our senior year, as stressful as it may seem, is going to provide us with the best times of our life. I am proud to be a member of this class, and to call many of you my friends. There are no words to describe everything that each and every person in this class has done for others.

I would like to thank everyone for the good times, the laughter, the tears, and especially, the faith.

Good luck in all your endeavors, whatever they may be. Just remember: what you do in life echoes in eternity

To my family- your hearts never fail to amaze me. ♥ to my true friends who have brought endless sunshine to my life. Thanks to all who have made these past four years an unforgettable ride. Emancipate yourself & recognize those who've stood by you. Reminisce as you look back & wonder as you look forward. Your life is what you make of it & your life starts now.

Dream as if you'll live forever, live as if you'll die today. It's been an amazing four years, thanks to all my family and friends for always being there. Mike ♥ words could never explain how much I love you. ♥ Rock on Class of 2006! And remember... it's not the end; it's just the beginning!

Mom and Dad- Your unconditional love and support has pushed me to unbelievable places. Jill- keep your head up, you have so much to offer everyone around you. I love you guys! Ladies- you make the bumps worth riding. Thanks for all the wonderful memories. I love you. "Wherever you go, no matter what the weather, always bring your own sunshine." Best wishes 2006!

YET TO COME...

I, Adam Amanu, see myself living happily near a beach during the summer and in the mountains skiing during the winter, and enjoying life with a great family and a high paying job that I love. I, Chris Auger, see myself traveling the world and being happy. I, Erin Bouthchie, see myself working in advertisement, making billboards and taking pictures for magazines. I, Cam Carpenter, see myself making music I love, striving for my dreams and finding happiness. I, Christina Ciampa, see myself having a small family, living in Europe, and owning a little coffee shop. I, Katie Cuff, see myself married to a rich man and retired in Florida. I, Alyson Curcuru, see myself working with children, getting married, and living near the beach. I, Melissa Fenton, see myself living in the Hamptons and being a very successful millionaire. I, Bryan Gaglione, see myself raising funds to clean up parks and natural landmarks in the area. I, Kelsey Hatcher, see myself becoming a doctor, living in California in a house on the beach, for the rest of my life. I, Katie Hickey, see myself traveling the world and settling in Ireland. I, Lynsey Lane, see myself working at a hospital, making lots of money and living happily ever after with my husband in California. I, Kali Lombardo, see myself going into the cosmetology field, and going to college, later owning my own business. I, Janel McCarthy, see myself working as a first grade teacher, living near the mountains, and having a beach house in Ipswich. I, Stephanie Mollica, see myself living in a giant hot air balloon. I, Zac Pardee, see myself looking through this yearbook with my wife and kids somewhere on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico. I, Ashley Sutherby, see myself as a successful businesswoman, married with children, and shooting the breeze on the beach. I, Tony Thanos, see myself playing the guitar and being a cook. I, Matt Verrette, see myself working for a graphic design company, and playing in a band in my free time, later releasing an album and going on tour, while making millions in the process. I, Alexi Watts, see myself singing in Carnegie Hall, living in NYC, and accentuating the positive until the end of my days. I, Richard Pierro, see myself living in Las Vegas playing golf as much as I can, and trying to make any baseball team that will take me. I, Molly Berry, see myself living in a tropical paradise with a huge house and tons of kids, and living happily ever after. I, Angela Doyle, see myself marrying a billionaire, becoming a famous child psychologist, owning homes all over the world, constantly traveling with impeccable health, having extremely close family and friends and making a difference. I, Rich Kimec, see myself probably still living in Ipswich or nearby and hopefully being successful.

I, Caitlin Phelan, see myself successful by my own standards doing whatever it is that I love most – and writing, having visited Europe, started a family, and left my impression. I, Marc Francis, see myself skydiving in the nude. So don't look up. I, Cathryn Folkestad, see myself married to a handsome, loving millionaire, and living on the coast of New England with three beautiful children. In my spare time I will try to teach my children how to have as much fun as I did when I was 17. Well maybe not that much fun... I, Jaimie Baraiolo, see myself working for the FBI as a criminal profiler, and traveling around the world working on high profile criminal cases. I, Lauren Harrington, see myself far away from Ipswich and all the drama that circles around this little town. I, Max Stendahl, see myself writing for a famous magazine, traveling the world, and living in Sweden. I, Emma Ingram, see myself working for a large business, becoming a millionaire, and living happily ever after near the beach. I, Kelly Wilbur, see myself on a sailboat somewhere south of the equator. I, Brian Haskins, see myself playing in small bands and having more fun than I know what to do with. I, Alli Feldman, see myself winning an Olympic gold medal, traveling the world, owning an orange car, and opening a yogurt store. I, Elaina Baer, see myself as a successful choreographer for many of Broadway's hit musicals, retiring years later happily married, and owning many homes in various spots of Europe's most scenic views. I, Emily Bailey, see myself living by the ocean in a mansion and married to a millionaire. I, Catherine Berkman, see myself driving a BMW, living in a big house, teaching at a high school, and having a family. I, Jenelle Colantuoni, see myself traveling the world, and then moving to a tropical climate, having two kids, and becoming a bilingual child psychiatrist. I, Mike Gallant, see myself hopefully still skiing and being happy. I, Daniel Keating, see myself writing a novel and living in random anonymity. I, Daniel McDonald, see myself conquering the known world with an army of fuzzy demon bunnies, becoming Pope Pichu I, and moving to Germany to live out the rest of my days. I, Sean McGinn, see myself employed as a head chef living in California in a trailer with a sexy French maid. I, Alexandria Pappalimberis, see myself having a business of my own, marrying a rich husband, and living near the ocean. I, Cody Perry, see myself doing something with cars or racing. I would like to work on them and race them as well – we will see! I, Kathleen Shaughnessy, see myself as the next Dr. Ladd. I, Caity Shea, see myself married with three children, hopefully living on the beach in the summer and on the slopes in the winter, and having the best of both worlds. I, Christina Mello, see myself being very famous, having my own line of purses and living on the beach somewhere in California. I, Mark Krupsky, see myself paying other people to do things like this for me. I, Krystina Wing, see myself working at a hospital making lots of money, living on a beach, having 2 kids and marrying the love of my life. I, Natalie Maker, see myself becoming an elementary school teacher. I, Olivia Pierson, see myself living in California working as a personal trainer, and still having as much fun as when I was 17. I, Cooper Reid, see myself as an equal. I, Sarah Vickery, see myself working at a public library, starting a poetry workshop, and writing The Great American Novel while trying to pay off grad school loans.

YET TO COME...

The Class of 2006 Thanks...

Mrs. Maria
Hebbel
and her son Alex

(Below): Jean Amann
and her son Adam

It is with great pleasure that the Class of 2006 Officers celebrate and recognize their mentors, Maria Hebbel and Jean Amann.
Throughout the countless hours, smiles, trials and tribulations
of the past four years,
you have been there for us,
unfailing in your dedication, devoted to our class
beyond our imagination and ability.

We have BIG shoes to fill someday.

Our heartfelt thanks for being wonderful role models.

With Great Affection,
Kathleen, Siobhan, Lauren, Marc
and the Class of 2006

I'll take this chance to thank this pair that has guided my classmates and I to create the book you hold in your hands. If it was not for their dedication, hard work, organization and ability to laugh at mistakes, this yearbook would not be half as successful.

After her year and a half leave, Mrs. Welch returned from her absense along with new twins to care for and our yearbook class.

Mr. Merullo spent his summer collecting ads for the yearbook instead of collecting the sun's rays on the beach.

They are role models of commitment and they have taught us lessons of determination we will forever remember.

"Confidence is the result of hours and days and weeks and years of constant work and dedication."

Caitlin Phelan

Caitlin,

My temptation is to express in this message how very "proud" I am of you. Presumably, if one is "proud" of something, they are seeking a feeling of pleasureable satisfaction over an act, possession, quality, or relationship by which they measure stature or self-worth. That makes me realize that this time in your life has nothing to do with my pride in you. It has nothing to do with how I might attempt to gain personal credit or self-worth through your successes. I don't deny for a second that the extreme emotion I feel when I see you sing, act, socialize, make an impression and help others through hard times are moments that make me feel like I've done right by you. However, I do not take credit for the person whom you have become; one who has found a way to excel in life. Rather, I empower you to recognize that your own thoughts, passions, and spirit are what have truly guided you. It has been your strong personal pride and honor, which you have in yourself and in this world that has made you the beautiful, sophisticated woman that you are today.

Presumably, an "honorable person" is one whose worth brings respect... Hence, I am honored to have watched you make choices that are beyond your years for the good of others. I am honored to have a daughter who has set goals, which I am certain will help you make a difference in this world. I am honored, Caitlin, to be your mother. You are my heart and soul and I love and respect you more than you can imagine. Be proud of yourself.

Love you,
Lina

Alexandra Pappalimberis

Alexandra,
We are so proud of the young lady you have become. Stay true to yourself.
Continue to work hard. Your dreams will come true. Enjoy every moment of the wonderful journey ahead of you.
Always know we love you very much!

Alex,

There are so many things we want for you, so many wishes in our hearts as we watch you grow into your own life and leave your childhood behind...

We wish you strength to face challenges with confidence, along with the wisdom to choose your battles carefully... We wish you a world of adventure and experience, and also the serenity that comes from listening to your inner voice as the world rushes around you...

We wish you the satisfaction of seeing your goals achieved, and also the true contentment that is born of simple things - work well-done, friends and family well-loved, moments caught and cherished.

And our greatest wish is that you will always remember how much you are truly loved, for you are a beautiful, special person... a woman we are proud to have for a daughter.

Have faith, deep peace and God's blessings...

Today, tomorrow, always,

Love and kisses,

CLASS of 2006

From the Class of 2007

I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live by the light that I have. I must stand with anybody that stands right, and stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.

-Abraham Lincoln

Good Luck Class of 2008

First of all, let

There are two things that I want you to make up your minds to:

First, that you are going to have a good time as long as you live -- I have no use for the sour-faced man, and

Next, that you are going to do something worthwhile, that you are going to work hard and do the things you set out to do.
